MORE GOLD FOR ROOSTER HILL'S 2014 DRY RIESLING

Two of the nation's largest wine competitions now have singled out Rooster Hill Vineyards' 2014 Dry Riesling as an outstanding wine.

Just last week Rooster Hill was awarded a gold medal for its 2014 Dry Riesling at the Finger Lakes International Wine Competition in Rochester.

In January, the 2014 Dry Riesling won a Double Gold Medal at the prestigious San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition.

The competition in Rochester bills itself as the largest charitable competition in the world. This year 3,824 wines were entered. The San Francisco event says it is the largest competition of American wines in the world. Wineries entered 7,162 wines this year.

Amy Hoffman, President and Co-Founder of Rooster Hill on Keuka Lake, said the staff is thrilled that the winery has been recognized again. "We strive for a consistent high standard of quality," she said, "and it's rewarding when the hard work pays off with recognition from wine experts."

Often cited in the national wine press for its wines' quality, Rooster Hill has won more than 330 medals in its 13-year history. For more details, call (315) 536-4773, e-mail info@roosterhill.com or visit the website at www.roosterhill.com.

Rooster Hill, which grows its own Estate grapes, is in the heart of Finger Lakes Wine Country in upstate New York. Finger Lakes Wine Country is the largest concentration of wineries east of California, boasting more than 100 wineries producing world-class wine.
